Paws Plus

This is our animal focused program linking elder animals with the elderly as well as rescuing animals with disabilities. Our "Elder to Elder" initiative builds on our county's four-shelter program called "Senior to Senior" and "Pets for Vets" with an added social services component. Our social services counselor assures all elder placements are well breed matched and that ongoing pet care is maintained. It also allows a safety net for grief management given the elder status of both client and pet. Although we have placed over two dozen animals since the program's inception, to date, we have only rescued a few blind cats. Our hope is to advance to other disabilities engaging STEAM HS students for Camden developing customized prosthetics to assist in adaptive services. The program is also intended to reduce the level of unnecessary animal euthanasia as well as provide data on health improvements that can lead to great health care system financial support.

Our goal is to innovate to maximize our impact. We strive to increase horizontally by increasing the numbers we serve in all our existing programs (PTSD Equine Therapy, art Therapy, Gardening, culinary arts, model rocketry, photography, and mental first aid) while increasing vertically into new programs (new PTSD Dance, Music and Performing Arts programs), expanding our transportation services and implementing anew meal delivery program.

Use of proven best practices and implementation of both our strategic plan and also VA best practices on suicide prevention.
